

Kate Meyer

Kate grew up in St. Joseph, Minn., and graduated from Saint Benedict's High School. She considers herself semi-retired and has enjoyed careers as a commercial interior designer, city planner and marketer for architectural and engineering firms. Kate returned to Minnesota in 2005 after sojourns in Oklahoma (eight years) and more recently, Massachusetts (15 years). Since 2008, she's been active in various volunteer roles at Saint Benedict's Monastery and previously completed a term on the editorial advisory board for the publication "Benedictine Sisters and Friends."
