

Mary Kay Carle

Mary Kay resides in St. Cloud, Minn., and is married to Daniel Carle. They have three married children and eight grandchildren. Mary Kay has worked as a part-time teacher at Cathedral High School in St. Cloud, a full-time teacher at St. Cloud Public School District 742 and as a family therapist at the Center for Family Counseling. She loves to volunteer and is involved in the following groups/organizations: PTA Westwood School District 742, Minnesota Center Chorale, Companions on the Journey at the College of Saint Benedict and Hands Across the World. Mary Kay is a board member of Childcare Resources, the regional coordinator for Gather The Women, co-president of the League of Women Voters and a board member of Early Childhood Family Education District 742. She is also a regional consultant for St. Cloud Area Head Start. Her hobbies include reading, hiking, biking, skiing, boating, singing, textiles, sewing, quilting, weaving, gardening and scrapbooking. Currently, she is writing a book for her grandchildren based on the letters that she and her husband wrote to each other (before they were married) when they both were Jesuit volunteers in Alaska.
