

Lectio Divina

Lectio divina (prayerful reading) explores prayer as a central spiritual practice of the monastic tradition. Participants will learn to listen with the ear of their heart to scripture and other aspects of their lives to help them discover God's presence and action. This practice is one of the church's treasures gifted through the ages by Benedictines.

