

A Visual Theology: Symbols Woven In Stitches

OPENING:

Thursday, May 28, 2026 • 12-4 p.m.

Celebrating the history, art and heritage of Saint Benedict's Monastery

This exhibit showcases the most famous and inquired about pieces in the museum's collection: its needlework pieces. Created in the monastery's Art Needlework Department that operated from 1867 to 1968, symbols of the divine are woven within each breathtaking and intricate stitch. Come check out the museum to view dozens of stunning pieces from the historical Art Needlework Department, such as "Saint George and the Dragon," a tapestry by Sister Bernardita Brauckmann. After experiencing the museum, commemorate your visit by purchasing a handmade gift from Whitby Gift Shop!
